"I understand clients only hire attorneys when it makes financial sense to do so. It is my job to aggressively and intelligently get the job done."

~ J. Harrington

Professional Biography

Jeff Harrington is an international business and real estate attorney with over 10 years of experience. He is equally accomplished as a litigator and transactional attorney. Jeff's practice focuses on commercial litigation and contracts related to business, real estate and finance. His international corporate work encompasses business immigration, such as investor and employment visas. Jeff is fully bilingual (English-Spanish) and conversant in Portuguese and French.

Jeff has successfully lead joint actions against national and multinational companies, such as Ocwen and Rapiscan (OSI Systems). He also represents financial lending institutions in Florida, both in court and through corporate counsel. Moreover, Jeff has been recognized by Thomson Reuters as an expert in real estate litigation, and he has numerous publications on business, investments, finance, taxation and real estate.
